

KEN LOWE 2019 PHATS/SPHEM HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

PHATS/SPHEM is thrilled to announce Ken Lowe, longtime Head Athletic Trainer formerly with the Edmonton Oilers, will be honored as the PHATS Hall of Fame Inductee at this year's Hall of Fame Dinner at the PHATS/SPHEM Annual Conference in Austin, TX on Saturday, June 22, 2019.

Ken had an outstanding career with the Edmonton Oilers and international hockey. Ken's career as an athletic trainer includes a 1990 Stanley Cup championship with the Oilers, Olympic gold medal with Team Canada (2002), gold medal in the World Cup of Hockey (2004) and gold medal at the 1994 World Championship. He is one of the most decorated Athletic Trainers in professional hockey.

With over 35 years in the athletic training profession, Ken Lowe worked over 1500 career regular season games with the Edmonton Oilers. Lowe was also the athletic trainer for the Western Conference All-Stars at the 1997 NHL All-Star Game in San Jose, California and the 2009 NHL All-Star Game in Montreal, Quebec.

Kevin Lowe will honor his brother as the Keynote Speaker at the Hall of Fame Dinner. Kevin is a six-time Stanley Cup Champion and current Vice Chair of Oilers Entertainment Group.
